

Table of contents

Introduction	7
PART ONE: WRITING
Melinda Reichelt ESL and EFL Writing Instruction: Challenges and opportunities	9
Mira Bekar Writing curricula design: Aims and practices.....	23
Iga Maria Lehman From contrastive rhetoric to intercultural rhetoric: Why intercultural rhetoric needs to reframe the concept of culture.....	33
Olga Trendak Writing strategies employed by advanced learners of English— a questionnaire study.....	51
Łukasz Wodarczyk A quantitative corpus-based analysis of linking adverbials in students' academic writing	71
Melanie Rockenhaus Teaching writing for high-stakes exams using communicative language teaching methods.....	89
Nataliya Samoylenko Internet collaborative projects as an effective educational method in teaching writing	103
Larysa Sanotska Implementing personalizing approach in teaching academic writing	113
PART TWO: CULTURE AND MEDIA
Katarzyna Piątkowska Foreign language learners' perception of their intercultural competence and their language performance.....	123

Agata Klimczak-Pawlak Discourse completion test as a tool for the development of intercultural competence	143
Jacek Tadeusz Waliński Relevance of linguistic landscape to intercultural competence development in the context of situated learning	155
Mariusz Kruk Virtual worlds, Internet resources, motivation: The results of a research project	167
Przemysław Krakowian Classroom Research and the Digital Learning Media	183
PART THREE: CLASSROOM
Mirosław Pawlak Researching grammar learning strategies: Combining the macro- and micro-perspective	193
Jakub Bielak, Mirosław Pawlak, Anna Mystkowska-Wiertelak Testing the use of grammar: Beyond grammatical accuracy	213
Olga Trendak Implementing SBI in the foreign language classroom— mission (im)possible?	233
Halina Majer Learning English pronunciation in and outside the classroom: Psychopedagogic considerations	245
Patrycja Ostrogska Phonological processing deficit—a culprit behind developmental dyslexia?	257
Marek Molenda Advanced students' oral fluency: The neglected component in the CLT classroom?	275
Grażyna Zarzycka Managing discourse in conversation during lessons of Polish as a foreign language	291
Edward Gillian, Bogna Ferensztajn, Bożena Franków-Czerwonko, Urszula Paradowska Emergent literacy and numeracy—preparation for reading, writing and mathematics	315
Kamila Ciepiela Identity performance in a TESOL classroom	329