

Contents

Preface by Dorota Filipczak	5
--	---

PART ONE: JANE URQUHART AND HER WRITINGS

Dorota Filipczak (University of Łódź) Bringing Landscape Home: An Interview with Jane Urquhart	11
Laura Ferri (University of Siena) Jane Urquhart in Tuscany: A Lover of Landscape and Art	27
Anna Branach-Kallas (Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń) Gothic Palimpsests: Exploring Multiple Forms of Haunting in Jane Urquhart's Fiction	37
Brygida Gasztold (Koszalin University of Technology) Physical and Imaginary Landscapes in the Fiction of Jane Urquhart	53

PART TWO: STUDIES OF SELECTED NOVELS BY JANE URQUHART

Maria Edelson (University of Łódź) "The story will take her wherever it wants to go:" Narrative and Landscape in Away by Jane Urquhart	63
Alana M. Vincent (University of Glasgow) Making Memory Solid: Body, Landscape and Identity in the Canadian National Vimy Memorial and Jane Urquhart's The Stone Carvers	75
Agnieszka Łowczanin (University of Łódź) Inhaling and Breathing out the Past in Changing Heaven	87
Marta Goszczyńska (University of Łódź) Cursed Islands of Solitude: "The Lady of Shalott" in Jane Urquhart's A Map of Glass	93